Cape Coral Realtor® to Be Installed as District Vice President of Florida’s Largest Professional Association

[FORT MYERS, FL | CAPE CORAL, FL] – Royal Palm Coast Realtor® Association (RPCRA), in union with Florida Realtors®, is excited to announce 2023 RPCRA President Jack Martin, sales associate with Century 21 Selling Paradise in Cape Coral, as the District 5 Vice President of Florida Realtors®, the state’s largest professional trade association. He will serve his fellow professionals in District 5, which encompasses Lee, Collier, and Hendry counties.

“We expect a healthy market in 2024 with abundant opportunities for buyers, sellers and investors throughout our district,” said Martin, who is active in residential and commercial brokerage. Martin is the 2023 president of the Royal Palm Coast Realtor® Association and has served on numerous committees. In the community, he is a board member of the Rotary Club of Cape Coral and active in the Knights of Columbus Council 7131, Horizon Council of Southwest Florida, Southwest Florida Symphony, and Bishop Verot High School.

As district vice president for the state association, Martin will focus on supporting Realtors® through education, advocacy, and service programs. “Our members bring their market knowledge, commitment to service, and high professional standards to helping buyers, sellers and investors achieve their personal goals,” said Martin.

“Throughout the district, Realtors® are actively involved in civic organizations, while supporting the state’s housing market and protecting private property rights”, said Martin. “Our members care about their communities and understand the importance of giving back.”

In his previous capacity as the 2023 President of the Royal Palm Coast Realtor® Association, Martin spearheaded numerous initiatives that strengthened the local real estate community. His innovative approach and collaborative spirit garnered widespread respect among his peers and set the stage for his elevation to the statewide role of District Five Vice President.

Current 2024 RPCRA President Marliessa Gervasoni offered her congratulations, saying “Jack is an excellent selection to contribute to the leadership of District 5! I am confident that he will achieve remarkable success in his upcoming position.”
