Leaders Emerge with RPCRA's Leadership Academy

Fort Myers and Cape Coral, FL – Leadership is emerging and in full force as the new class of Royal Palm Coast Realtor® Association's (RPCRA) Leadership Academy is selected and begins their educational journey into preparing for future leadership roles at the Association, and into Florida Realtors® (FR) and the National Association of Realtors® (NAR). Students in the Academy will involve themselves in many different sessions touching on areas of advocacy, legislative and parliamentary procedures, mock hearings and legal panels, effective communication skills, FR and NAR courses and a project presentation to round out their successful completion of the Academy.

The Academy is made up of existing leaders to help guide and provide a foundation of unique opportunities to learn first-hand the operations of the Association and how RPCRA integrates with FR and NAR.

"This year's class is a strong group of Realtor® members who are passionate about making a difference," said Monica Arrondo, RPCRA's Interim CEO. "They have the desired motivation and determination to make a positive impact that will benefit their fellow members, and the Association. Many of the principles learned through the Academy can be applied in daily business decisions."

RPCRA extends a warm welcome to our 2023 Leadership Academy:
