Royal Palm Coast Realtor® Association Honors Members with Annual Member Awards

[FORT MYERS, FL | CAPE CORAL, FL] – The Royal Palm Coast Realtor® Association (RPCRA) proudly announced the recipients of its 2024 Annual Member Awards during the January Member Breakfast held on Friday, January 10, at The Club at Pelican Preserve in Fort Myers. This highly anticipated event brought together members and businesses of the real estate community to honor outstanding contributions and achievements over the past year.

RPCRA motivates its members to reach greatness through its dynamic awards programs, amplifying individuals' exceptional dedication to the real estate industry. The acknowledgment of award winners not only celebrates their success but adds a level of marketability to their businesses.

Consideration for award winners is given to those who were nominated by their peers and reviewed by the RPCRA Awards Committee. Applicants must meet a defined set of award criteria to qualify. Awards are bestowed upon members who have demonstrated outstanding involvement and accomplishments over a specific number of years, showcasing significant engagement since joining the association.

RPCRA proudly celebrates the below Member Award recipients:

- Donna Stout, Miloff Aubuchon Realty Group, Inc. – 2024 Realtor® of the Year
Donna Stout was recognized for her unparalleled dedication, professionalism, and commitment to excellence in serving her clients and the community.
- Marion Briggs, Sun Country Realty – 2024 Broker of the Year
