Royal Palm Coast Realtor® Association Members Volunteer For Their Community

Fort Myers and Cape Coral, FL – The Royal Palm Coast Realtor® Association (RPCRA) members were honored to volunteer their time to the ongoing efforts of Community Cooperative, a non-profit organization dedicated to ending hunger and homelessness in Southwest Florida. RPCRA is committed to community engagement and giving back to the local Fort Myers community and is proud to partner with incredible organizations like Community Cooperative.

Members spent their time assisting in the kitchen preparing food, prepackaging meals for distribution, stocking pantry shelves, cleaning, and other duties. The volunteering experience is made all the more enjoyable by the many incredibly hard-working and dedicated staff who were always gracious and accommodating.

Marlissa Gervasoni, 2024 RPCRA President Elect stated, "We are proud to partner with Community Cooperative and extend our commitment to community service beyond the real estate realm. RPCRA members are enthusiastic about contributing their time and energy to this worthy cause. By working together, we can make a significant impact on the lives of those less fortunate in our community. Though this kind of work is never finished, RPCRA members and staff are always here to lend a helping hand."

This partnership reflects RPCRA's dedication to corporate social responsibility and its belief that businesses can play an essential role in addressing community challenges. By leveraging their collective skills, resources, and passion, RPCRA and Community Cooperative aim to make Fort Myers a better place for all.
